Daniel Butterworth Workshop

21 -22 February 2026, 9am to 4pm

Cost: Members $360 Non-Members $390

NSACA again welcomes Daniel Butterworth, join us at Wallace House for a weekend of expressive spontaneity! Daniel's workshops are always popular so please book early by emailing create@noosaartsandcrafts.org.au or call during office hours on (07) 5474 1211 to secure your place.

An Archibald & Doug Moran Portrait Prize finalist, Daniel is an established figurative and landscape artist, richly expressive and gestural, Daniel's loose and free approach to his medium is both captivating & spontaneous!

Over two days Daniel will introduce and demonstrate his techniques, discussing with participants how to approach their own subject matter, helping you to plan and guiding you through the creative process.

Proposed Material List:

10-15 of a variety of sizes of reclaimed cardboard

House paints in warm primary colours, black and white in sample pots

If you would prefer to bring your own paints or preferred mediums, please do so

An assortment of brushes, tub for water

Images of landscapes, portraits and still lifes that you plan on painting

Ideally this would be on an iPad but you can bring your laptop, phone or hard copies.
